

DEPARTMENT OF FORESTRY
	Forest Resources Planning Division
	Intern to Principal Forest Economist
	Approximately $11.00 per hour base rate, plus seasonal employee benefits such as sick leave and vacation
Location:	Salem
Duration:	2 years, starting end of 2009-2010 school year (will work around study abroad programs)
Hours:	40-hour weeks over summer and 10-15 during school year
Application Deadline:	October 15, 2009
Description & Duties:	Assist in research and economic analysis for various projects undertaken by the Resource Policy Division
Qualifications:	Must have at least two years of undergraduate education remaining, quantitative and analytic background, good writing and communicating skills AND the completion of at least an introductory economic statistics class by the end of the 2009-2010 school year is desired
Contact:	Gary Lettman
Address:	2600 State St. Salem, OR 97310
Phone:	(503) 945-7408
Fax:	(503) 945-7490
Email:	glettman@odf.state.or.us
To apply:	Contact the Oregon Department of Forestry's Principal Economist, Gary Lettman, to obtain application details and schedule an introductory meeting about the job.