State issues forecast on demand for close-custody beds at Oregon Youth Authority

Salem—The state Office of Economic Analysis (OEA) issued the Oregon Youth Authority Demand Forecast today. The forecast projects the demand for Oregon Youth Authority close-custody beds for the next 10 years.

Release of the forecast occurs on April 15 and October 15 of every year. The forecast helps state policy makers plan and budget for the juvenile corrections population.

The forecast is available at <http://www.oregon.gov/DAS/OEA/oya.shtml>.
