
DELEGATION DOCUMENTATION & INSTRUCTIONS

Child: _____

Prime #: _____ Date: _____

Following an assessment of the child and through conversation and observation, I believe _____ is capable of satisfactorily performing the skill of _____

The Registered Nurse may delegate a task of nursing care to unlicensed persons, specific to one client, under the following conditions:

- The client's condition is stable and predictable.
- The client's situation or living environment is such that delegation of a task of nursing care could be safely done
- The selected caregiver(s) have been taught the task of nursing care and are capable of and willing to safely perform the task of nursing.

The Registered Nurse shall provide initial direction by teaching the task of nursing care, including:

- | |
|--|
| ▪ The proper procedure: |
| ▪ Why the task is necessary: |
| ▪ The risks/ Anticipated side effects: |
| ▪ Documentation to include but not limited to :Step by Step instructions; Protocols; Emergency Instructions: |

Initial reassessment of delegation to occur with in 60 days from initial delegation. Ongoing intervals between delegation visits to be determined by RN, not to exceed 180 days. Next Due: _____

RN Name (print): _____ CIIS Provider #: _____

RN Signature: _____ Date: _____

I, _____, have received the above information and understand that procedure taught is specific to the above named child and is not transferable to another child, nor can I teach this task to another person. I understand the risks involved in performing the task and that the RN and/or physician/nurse practitioner is to be contacted should problems arise.

Care Provider Signature: _____
